PRAYERS I DON'T LIKE.

I don't like to hear him pray
Who loans at twenty-five per cent,
For then I think the borrower may
Be pressed to pay for food and rent.
And in that book we all should head,
Which says the lender shall be blest.
As sure as I have eyes to read
It does not say "take interest."

I do not like to hear him pray
On bended knees about an hour,
For grace to apend aright the day,
Who knows his neighbor has no flour.
I'd rather see him go to mill
And buy the luckless brother bread,
And see his children cat their fill.
And laugh beneath their humble shed.

I do not like to hear him pray,

"Let blessings on the widow be,"

Who never seeks her home to say,

"If want overtakes you, come to rac."

I hate the prayer, so loud and long.

That's offered for the orphan's weal,

By him who sees him crushed to wrong,

And only with the lips doth feet.

I do not like to hear her pray.

With jeweded ear and siken dress.

Whose washerwoman tolls all day.

And then is asked to "work for less."

Such plous shavers I despise;

With folded hands and face demure. They lift to heaven their "angel eye Then sical the carnings of the poor
